

Comments From the Floor

Public comments shall be limited to no more than three minutes per individual and at the times designated in the agenda, except where extended privileges are granted by the president. Any individual desiring to speak shall give his/her name, address and group represented, if any.